COLUMBIA WINS TIME ALLOWANCE

Brisk Wind Died Down as Boats Were Headed For Home

BOTH BOATS LOST AT THE START

Each waited For Other, and Both were Handicapped. Shamrock Passed Columbia on Run Out, and Both Boats Alternated on the way Back

New York, Oct. 4—Columbia wins the third race and keeps the cup.

Shamrock crossed the line three seconds ahead unofficial time.

The time was: Shamrock 3.35.35; Columbia 3.35.38.

Columbia wins by 40 seconds corrected time unofficial.

After a peculiar start, in which each boat was handicapped by waiting for the other, Columbia got away first, while both boats had the same official starting time.

A brisk breeze pushed the boats over the first three-quarters of the course. Shamrock overcame Columbia's lead on the way out, and rounded the stakeboat nearly 50 seconds ahead, but early on the way home Columbia shot past the challenger, and led for a time.

Then the wind died down, and Shamrock sailed past the American yacht.

An Unusual Start

New York, Oct. 4—Today's was an unusual start. It was due to Captain Barr's tactics yesterday in holding off to cross the starting after the Shamrock. Today both boats held off, and both held off so long that the handicap gun fired before either had crossed. When the did, the Columbia was ahead.

The prepaatory signal at 10.45 was sounded and the starting gun at 11.

Then the crowdes watched the jockeying of the two captains each anxious to get the better position by starting last. Finally the handicap gun was sounded and the start of the race was officially made, although neither yacht had crossed the line.

Columbia crossed 15 seconds after the gun, but 15 seconds ahead of the Shamrock, but the official time of starting both yachts was 11.02, when the handicap gun was sounded.

Shamrock Takes Lead

As soon as the yachts were under way, however, the great sail area of the Shamrock began to tell, and at 11.27 she began to haul up. At 11.30 she passed the defender, and soon put a good bit of water between them.

After 45 minutes of tremendously exciting sailing ,both yachts plowing their way through foam, Shamrock was fully a minute ahead.

At 12.09 a favoring gust of wind enabled Columbia to close the gap which separated the two a little, the boats being than three miles from the outer mark.

Shamrock, however, held her lead to that turn.

Turning the Outter Mark

Shamrock was not quite ahead when she swept around the mark at a rattling pace.

The official time of turning the mark for both yachts was:

Shamrock, 12.48.46; Columbia, 12.49.35.

Columbia Passes Shamrock

As they rounded the mark, each yacht set every available inch of canvass and the splendid wind sent the racers fairly spining through the water. Every bit of sail on both yachts drew perfectly, and the boats made a picture of beauty.

Here Columbia's great outpointing abilities were clearly apparent, and she rapidly picked up.

The gap between her and the Shamrock was speedily closed, and she passed her rival handsomely at 1.12.

At 1.34 Columbia appeared to be almost a mile to winward, but the wind was beginning to fall.

For the next half hour the wind barely held its own, being about 12 knots.

At 2.03 Columbia went on the star board tack, and was holding her lead well.

Shamrock Gains in Failing Wind

Then for 20 minutes there was anxiety from two causes.

The wind seemed to drop steadily, and in it the Shamrock gained slowly but surely.

At 2.34 Shamrock was ahead. Both boats were then on the starboard tack.

PIPING BREEZE THIS MORNING

Yesterday's Conditions Equalled Today. Both Yachts on Hand Early Again

New York, Oct. 4—A ripping 18 knot breeze from the northwest, weather clear and sea smooth, at 8 o'clock this morning, promised another ideal racing day.

By 10.15 o'clock the boats were standing off around the light ship with main sails and club top-sails up.

The wind was still merrily going at 18 knots.

The course for the race was signalled as 15 miles south-southeast to leeward and return.

The excursion fleet was also on hand early, every boat crowded to the limit.

British Congratulations

London, Oct. 4—The British newspapers unanimously congratulate the United States on the triumph of the Columbia and concede that the Shamrock was outclassed at all points of sailing.

Shamrock Is by No Watson's Last

New York, Oct. 4—When asked whether he had given up hope, Sir Thomas Lipton replied:—

"My flag is never down until the battle is ended. There is still a chance, but it is nothing more. Yesterday's race was decisive."

"If this series goes against you, will you challenge again, Sir Thomas?"

"If I should ever do so," said he, "I should have to come to America, I think, become a citizen, and then let Herreshoff design it for me. I have employed the best designer in England and his boat has been beaten."

"If the boat won't win how can I make it? The best in England was in the race, and the best has been beaten. To make a winning boat is the task of the designer. I do not criticise Mr. Watson, for he has done his best. He has devoted five years of his life to this task, and he has done his work well—the best that he could. He is a good fellow, and no man could have been more diligent. I don't think a fortune could tempt him ever again to design a yacht."

Fastest Race Ever Sailed

New York, Oct. 4.—In a glorious whole sail breeze which heeled the big cup contestants down until their lee rails were awash in the foaming seas Herreshoff's white wonder, the Columbia, yesterday beat Watson's British creation over a triangular course of 30 miles by two minutes and 52 seconds actual time. With the 48 seconds which the Irish sloop must allow the American boat on account of her larger sail plan the Columbia won the second race of the series by three minutes and 35 seconds. The fastest race ever sailed in a cup contest, it was not only a royal struggle from a spectacular point of view but it was absolutely decisive as to the merits of the two racing machines. There is not a yachting sharp who wit-

PARKER DEFEATS HARRIS

Worcester Man Gets Rebublican Nomination For Attorney General

THE VOTE WAS 935 TO 774

Only Contest in Republican State Convention Today. Tributes to McKinley the Feature. The Platform as Finally Adopted

THE TICKET.

For Governor—W. MURRAY CRANE.

Lieutenant-Governor — JOHN L. BATES.

Secretary of Commonwealth—WILLIAM M. OLIN.

Treasurer—EDWARD S. BRADFORD.

Auditor—HENRY E. TURNER.

Attorney Generel — HERBERT PARKER.

Botson, Oct. 4—The republican state convention was held today. There was only one contest, that for attorney general, and the keynote of the gathering was a sentiment of admiration for President McKinley's memory, voiced by Senator George F. Hoar, and also by the permanent chairma, Samuel J. Elder, and Chairman A. H. Goetting of the state committee.

In the appointment of committees, there was considerable of western Massachusetts interest. The committee on ballots included the following from Berkshire county: Walter Hawkins of Pittsfield, A B. Daniels of Adams, Frank H. Wright of Great Barrington, Franklin Weston of Dalton, Charles L. Frink of North Adams.

Samuel W. George was chairman of the committee on credentials, and Herbert Newell of Shelburne was the member from the first congressional district. Richard W. Irwin of Northampton was chairman of the committee on permanent organization, and John E. Magenis was the first district member. William C. Lovering of Taunton was chairman of the committee on resolutions and John F. Noxon of Pittsfield was the first district member

The addresses of the permanent chairman was an eloquent tribute to President McKinley, with a discussion of free speech and caricature. in which he said that thepresident must be protected from caricature denunciation, foul abuse and contemptuous ridicule. In closing he said:

"There is no occasion for change in Massachusetts. The affairs of the state have been managed by our distinguished governor with ability, dignity and sole reference to the public good. His has been a business and not a political administration. No just criticism is made, or can be made, on any of the departments state government.

At the close of this address the band played "Nearer, My God, to Thee," the audience joining in the words.

The resolutions were then adopted, and the nominations were made. Attorney General Knowlton nominated W. Murray Crane for governor, and H. K. Sanderson of Lynn nominated John L. Bates for lieutenant governor.

The contest for attorney general between Herbert Parker of Lancaster and Robert O. Harris was decided in one ballot, Parker wining by the vote of 935 to 774. Mr. Parker's name was placed before the convention by Melvin O. Adams of Boston.

The announcement was received with cheers.

Governor Crane and Lieutenant-Governor Bates were each introduced and spoke.

During the balloting Sneator Hoar delivered his eulogy of the late President McKinley. It was an eloquent address, closing with the words:

"William McKinley has fallen in his high place. The spirit of anarchy, always the servant of the spirit of despotism ,aimed its shaft at him, and his life for this world is over. But there comes from his fresh grave a voice of lofty triumph, "Be of good cheer. It is God's way."

The Platform

The platform adopted by the convention expresses the deepest sympathy for Mrs. William McKinley and the utmost loyalty and confidence in Theodore Roosevelt. The party asserts its faith in the principles enunciated by President McKinley.

The summary of the chief planks in the platform are as follows.

We denounce all laws which confer special privileges upon the few.

We favor such laws as open the widest opportunity to all.

We declare in favor of wise, discriminating, business-like executive and legislative reciprocity.

We pledge support to all sound measures which give permanence to the gold standard coinage.

We favor immediate construction of the Isthmian canal, to be owned, operated and protected by the government.

We favor government aid in the building of a merchant marine.

We favor an amendment to the constitution giving to congress the power to regulate the hours of labor.

We condemn all attempts to disfranchise the negro voter as un-American and a violation of the constitution

We aver that the law should visit an adequate penalty for assault, murder or threats on the life of the president.

We urge the permanent improvement of Boston harbor.

GREAT DIFFICULTY TO FREE MISS STONE

New York, Oct. 4—A Constantinople dispatch says. Political difficulties in the way of the American authorities effectively working in the direction of compelling Miss Stone's release are practically insuperable.

The legation asserts that there is irrefutable proof of the complicity of the Macedonian committee in the kidnapping, but that committee is beyond the reach of any power except Bulgaria. Any attempt at coercive measures by the Bulgarian government is extremely unlikely, as popular sympathy is with the Macedonian organization.

Nor can America bring pressure to bear on Bulgaria for the reason that all the Bulgarian ports are on the Black Sea, whither the American fleet cannot go without passing the Dardanelles, thus opening a question that might involve the whole of Europe.

Since the Macedonian committee hankers after money for political purposes, it is expected to exert all means to secure the ransom, but the legation hopes by showing the dastardly work of the committee to discredit it with its influential friends.

Inasmuch as the American board refuses to set an impossible precedent of yielding to the demands of the brigands, intense anxiety prevails as to Miss Stone's fate.

THE YACHT RACE

nessed the race who is not firmly convinced that the defender is the abler boat high or low, beating, reaching running, and Sir Thomas and his merry British tars are doomed to return home empty handed. Again the antique piece of silverware brought across the western ocean 50 years ago, is safe. Again American supremacy in marine architecture has been vindicated. Sir Thomas has been wishing for a breeze that would bury Shamrock's lee rail and he had it, just as he had a similar breeze in the concluding race two years ago when Columbia in a driving finish beat the first Shamrock over six minutes.

The wind yesterday was strong and true, blowing around 18 knots an hour out of the northeast and at every point of sailing, except perhaps runing before the wind in which the defender has already taken the measure of the challenger, th Yankee sloop proved herself abler than the Watson model. From the time she crossed the line, 1 minute and 34 seconds behind the cup hunter until she picked up and passed the Irish boat, three miles after rounding the second mark, Columbia's pace was faster and she behaved better than her rival.

Reaching for the first mark ten miles down the Long Island shore with the wind abaft the beam, she gained 22 seconds. In a closer reach for the second stake she gained 30 seconds and in the thresh to windward on the leg home she gained exactly two minutes. Not perhaps as thrilling as the remarkable contest of last Saturday, yesterday's race was nevertheless, stirring from start to finish and as a marine spectacle it could hardly have been surpassed. It was an ideal October day at sea.

There was just enough frostineast to There was just enough frostiness to clear the atmosphere and make the whole course visible from shore.

The Yankee victory began with the start when the crafty Barr by a system of manoeuvering convinced his adversary that he was trying to cross the line first. Captain Sycamore promptly took the bait and rushing his boat into position, sent her away almost in the smoke of the gun. Thereupon Captain Barr having accomplished his purpose tacked about back of the line and held off for more than a minute. Then with a flying start he went over just before the handicap gun was fired. Some of the patriots were dissapointed until the experts explained that there was no windward berth in a reach where the boats could lay their course straight for the mark and that the position astern where Barr could keep his eye on every move of his rival was the commanding one. He could watch Captain Sycamore like a hawk knowing that when the gap between them was closed the race was his. For the first fifteen miles no human eye could tell which ship if either, were gaining, so closely were they matched. But gradually it became more and more apparent that the Columbia was overhauling the flying challenger. Slowly, inch by inch and foot by foot, the white boat gained. Both were going at a terrific pace. Everything in the excursion fleet had to crowd on steam to keep the racers in sight and the gait at which they were going left tugboats and some of the steam yachts astern. The guide boat which started 15 minutes before the racers, tore ahead at full speed but she was hardly able to log off the distance and get the float overboard before the racers were upon her.

Leaving the first mark on the starboard hand, the racers gybed over their big booms and went careening for the second mark the Columbia gaining slowly but surely. When they ran around the second stake they took in their baby jibtopsails and hauled their wind for the beat home. Both yachts heeled until their lee rails dipped a foot into the swirling billows. Within five minutes after rounding the last mark it was apparent that the Columbia was footing faster and pointing higher. She went through the Shamrock's lee rail like a quarter horse. The rush of the leviathians on the final tack was magnificent. The excursion boats, black with people from gunwale to pilot house, gathered about the finish in a great horseshoe. As the white flyer came on with the big bone in her teeth, well in the lead, the patriotic skippers with their hands on the whistle cords could hardly restrain themselves. As she swept across the line the din was tympanum-destroying. Whistles split the air and steam sirens wailed drowning the crash of the bands and the cheers of the people. The concert of sound was terrible. Until after the gallant Shamrock, beaten but not disgraced, crossed a minute and 18 seconds later, whistles and sirens were kept going. When they had died away the bands could be heard playing "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," Yankee Doodle," and other patriotic airs.

Sir Thomas in the Erin did not approach within half a mile of the finish line. He had seen his high hopes blasted and presumably he did not care to be in at the jubilation over the defeat of his champion. But like a good game sportsman, after the Columbia went over the line, he ran the American flag up to the forepeak and fired a salute in its honor. The rival crews cheered each other as they were towed home behind their tenders and escorted by the whole excursion fleet.

Within half an hour after the conclusion of the race the committee boat in accordance with the agreement to race daily, from now on set the signal for a race Friday. Sir Thomas Lipton although plainly depressed at the result of the race, stood bravely at the gangway of the Erin and bid a cordial adieu to his guests. He also entertained a large party of yachtmen and ladies who visited the Erin after the day's guests had departed.

When asked what he thought of the race he said: "I admit frankly that I got licked by the best boat, in a fair and square race, and I maintain and believe that there is not a better skipper afloat than Captain Sycamore nor a better man to manage a crew. I have as much esteem for my captain and crew as when I came to this side, but they can't do impossibilities. They took as much out of the boat as could be taken.

SHOT WIFE WHILE ASLEEP

Hays Goes In'o the Details of His Somnambulistic Attempt

Boston, Oct. 4.—Somnabulism, which is the defense in the trial of George C. Hays, charged with assault to murder his wife and Patrolman Burrill of station 3 on Aug. 16, was given a full and free discussion in the Suffolk superior court yesterday.

Hays was the first witness of the morning for himself. He testified that he had worried about his wife and had grown chronically nervous. That he had tried to adjust the difficulties between himself and wife, that she had instituted proceedings to be separated, and that on the day of the shooting he had drawn up an agreement for separation. He went to their home in the afternoon and his wife was not there. He looked for her again in the evening, and she was still absent. He looked for her at Forbes house, but she wasn't there. At 9 o'clock he returned home after having four drinks of ale all day. At 10 o'clock he lay on the bed and went to sleep. The next thing he remembered was when he was awakened by water falling on his hand while at the sink bathing the wound received by his wife. He rembered telling Griffith to go for a doctor and ambulance. He intended to take his wife to the hospital, and reached the top of the stairs when he saw Officer Burrill coming up. He had the revolver in his right hand pointing downward. He called out the officer to come up, but the officer turned around and went down stairs. Then a shot was discharged. Couldn't tell who discharged it. He went down stairs with his wife. Near the bend in the stairs he sent her before him. It was dark, and a number of blows from a club rained on him. He didn't talk with any officer at the station house.

On cross-examination. He was positive that he didn't remember anything from the time he went to bed until after he did the shooting.

Wounded as Was McKinly

Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Augustus Miller, the farmer who was shot in the abdomen by a neighbor, being wounded apparently more seriously than former President McKinley, is much better and the physicians say he is out of danger.

The bullet entered the man's body above and about an inch to the left of his naval and punctured the intestines in 10 places and mesentery in two places. An operation was not performed for more than five hours after he was wounded, and lasted from midnight until 2 o'clock in the morning. An opening five inches in length was made on the right side of the abdomen, in order to reach the wounded parts.

The surgeons, however, went to work rapidly to sew up the wounds and in two hours the operation was ended. The patient recovered quickly, the next morning his temperature being 101.45 and his pulse 130. Twenty-four hours later his temperature had fallen to 99.35 and his pulse to to 86. Both pulse and temperature now are almost normal.

Cuban Demonstration For Reciprocity

Havana, Oct. 4.—A very large demonstration of Havana bankers, manufacturers, merchnts and other business men, waited upon Gen. Wood at the palace yesterday and presented to him a plea for the reduction of duties on Cuban products on lines of reciprocity. It is estimated that between ten and fifteen thousand persons took part in the demonstrtion. Similar demonstrations occurred in many other parts of the island. A general holiday was observed and telegrams from every municipality supporting the plea of the Havana merchants were sent to Washington.

Taunton's Oldest Pastor Dead

Taunton, Mass., Oct. 4.—Rev. Dr. S. Hopkins Emery, pastor emeritus of the Winslow Congregational church of this city died last night of heart desease. Dr. Emery was president of the Old Colony Historical society and a member of the Old Colony commission of Massachusetts and W. H. Bartlett, Post G. A. R. He was 84 years of age. He was prominent in denominational circles in New England and was formerly pastor of a church at Quincy, Ill.

An Accomplished Lawbreaker

Manchester, Vt., Oct. 4.—Harvey Wheeler, who, it is said has been arrested 55 times on crimiual charges, was again arrested yesterday on the charge of illegal liquor selling. While in charge of the sheriff, who turned away for a moment, Wheeler made his escape. He has gone into the mountains and the sheriff and a large posse are attempting to make his capture, with the assistance of bloodhounds.

IN EVERY ENGAGEMENT

Schley Was Cool and Possessed Under Fire

THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO

A Favorable Turn Given to the Situation by the Testimony of Lieutenant Doyle, Formerly of the Flagship Brooklyn

Washington, Oct. 4.—Lieutenant James J. Doyle, who was watch officer on board Commodore Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, during the Spanish war, was an interesting witness yesterday, for he is the first of the Brooklyn's officers to be called to the stand since the inquiry began. He was called by the department. After Lieutenant Doyle had completed his testimony Captain Willian C. Dawson of the marine corps was called and was followed by Lieutenant Charles W. Dyson of the Bureau of Steam engineering of the navy department. Captain Dawson was signal officer on board the battleship Indiana during the naval engagement off Santiogo and he gave an account from recolection of the behavior of the various ships of the American fleet during that battle. He said the Brooklyn had gone about 2,000 yards to the southward before joining in the pursuit of Cervera's ships.

Mr. Rayner then asked Lieutenant Doyle how often he had seen Commodore Schley, under fire during the Santiago campaign.

"Every time we were under fire," he replied, "during bombardments of the shore batteries and in the battle of July 3."

"What was his conduct? I refer you to the first specification of the precept. His conduct in connection with events of the Santiago campaign, and what was his conduct and bearing at any time during the battle of July 3, when his ship was under fire?" I did not have an opportunity, as the commodore was always near, about the conning tower, to observe his conduct during the battle, but immediately previous and after, I did not have an opportunity to do so. He always struck me as being just about as well possessed as it was possible for anybody to be under the circumstances."

After describing the part he took in firing the Brooklyn's guns, Lieutenant Doyle told of the chase and runing to shore of the first three Spanish ships. He then continued as follows: "From then on it was a chase after the Colon. At the time the Viscaya went ashore, the Colon, by working up inside the other Spanish ships, had secured a very long lead. I should say she was at least five or six miles, possibly more, on our starboard bow, well in shore. The order was given to cease firing and to come out of the turrets and take a "spell" during the chase of the Colon. The Oregon during that chase, and while we were on the top of the turret, was directing to try her 13-inch guns on the chase, which she did, and the shots fell short. In a little while they were tried again and came a little closer."

Admiral Dewey. "Directed by whom?"

"By Commodore Schley, sir, by wigwag signal, as I remember it."

Admiral Dewey. "You saw that signal?"

"Yes sir, I saw the signal being made."

Captain Lemly then asked a number of questions. The first of these called for an explanation of what the witness meant yesterday when he said that he thought that just after the beginning of the battle of July 3, there was a prospect of a melee.'

"I thought," responded the witness, "that the ships were coming right toward us. I thought they would get into us and I thought we would have a mix-up, as they were only about 1400 yards distant."

Judge advocate. "Do you mean that the course of the Brooklyn took her across the Spanish line and that she necessarily manoeuvered so as to make a turn to avoid her?"

"That is what I mean."

"What orders were given by signal from the Brooklyn to the fleet during the action of July 3?"

"I do not know, except what I have already testified to about the wigwag."

Captain William Dawson of the U. S. Marine corps, the signal officer on board the battle ship Indiana during the battle of Santiago said that he had noticed the Brooklyn when that vessel turned to the southward. He had supposed the ship was injured and had gone out of action. Continuing his narrative he said: "At the beginning all the ships turned in toward the Spanish fleet which was emerging from the harbor. The Spanish vessels came out in a southwesterly direction and ported helm; continuing to the westward practically parallel to the coast line. Our ships then not having as great speed as the enemy's, began to fall behind, so that the Indiana, Oregon, Iowa and Texas, starboarded helm and made all the speed they could in a parallel course with the Spanish squadron. I did not see the exact movement of the Brooklyn. The first I noticed her was 20 or 25 minutes after the action began, when I turned my eyes to the westward and saw her standing apparently due southward directly at right angles to and the course the other Americans were steering. This struck me so forcibly because the other ships were in column and steaming westward. The Brooklyn was in close proximity to several others of our ships. They appeared bunched, but the Brooklyn was steaming southward and firing with her starboard guns, while some of the others I could not distunguish which, were close to her. The spectacle was so remarkable that I reported the fact to the commanding officer of our ship, saying that I feared the Brooklyn was injured and was going out. She, however, changed her course and went west on a line well outside that of the other ships. I think the Oregon was then in the lead, either the Oregon or the Texas, with the Iowa following and the Indiana in the rear. The Brooklyn steered a course parallel but a mile or a mile and a half to the southward, skirting along the column formed by the fleet. By that time the chase was well under way and the relative positions of the vessels were not changed."

Mr. Rayner's cross examination of Captain Dawson was directed toward showing that his testimony was based upon recollection and that consequently he was liable to be inaccurate. The witness admitted that he testified only from memory, but he said: "I was on deck as a signal officer and it was my duty to observe closely and make reports."

MANUFACTURERS' FIRM

Situation at Fall River Becoming More Tense

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 4.—The manufacturers have come to the full realization of the belief that the mill operatives are in earnest in their strike threats, and in order to fortify themselves against the possibility of one or more mills weakening and granting the advance of 5 percent in wages, they have signed an agreement which binds every mill in the city to fight to the finish. When one mill advances the wages then all will follow, a condition which the manufacturers say will not prevail until they have given the operatives a long and tedious term of idleness.

This is the first time in the history of the cotton industry in this city that the manufacurers have been united upon a line of policy without dissenting voice. The exceptions, of course, are M. D. C. Borden and George A. Chace, the latter of the Bourne mill, which is situated just over the line in Rhode Island.

QUINCY IS NOMINATED

Democrats Place Boston's Ex-Mayor at Head of Ticket

WOULD ABOLISH COUNCIL

A Kindly Reference to McKinley In the Resolutions, and Well Wishes For Roosevelt—Summary of the Platform

Boston, Oct. 4.—The Democratic state convention held here yesterday placed the following ticket in nomination: Governor, Johiah Quincy, Boston; lieutenant governor, John W. Coughlin, Fall River; secretary of state, Wellmore B. Stone, Springfield; treasurer, Joseph L. Chalifoux, Lowell; auditor, James F. Dean, Salem; attorney general, A. A. Putnam, Uxbridge.

For the first time in six years the Democracy of the state was united, and with one exception nominated the entire ticket by acclamation. The exception was for the head of the ticket, the contestants being Hon. Josiah Quincy, former mayor of Boston and Gamaliel Bradford of Wellesley. The contest was one-sided, however, and while it provoked considerable warmth of temper from the Bradford adherents, the vast majority of the delegates did not treat the matter seriously, and when the ballots were counted, ex-Mayor Quincy received 1256, and Mr. Bradford 174.

Among the resolutions of the platform were the following:

"We deeply lament the tragedy which has recently deprived the nation of its chosen ruler, soon after the beginning of his second term of office. We join with all our countrymen in recognizing the distinguished public and private virtues of the late President McKinley and the eminent place which he has won among statesmen."

"There is no place for anarchy in this country. Under our democratic institutions the hand which is raised against the president is directed against popular sovereignty itself. Freedom of speech does not include the right to advocate assassination."

"President Roosevelt is entitled to the good wishes of all patriotic citizens, without predjudice to their right to criticise his acts or oppose his policies as future occasion may require."

"We believe in the soundness of the American system of party government, and in the division of the voters mainly into two divisions, upon which it rests. The great preponderance of the Republican party in this state and in the nation is inconsistent with the public interest. We call upon all believers in Democratic principles, and upon all who desire to resist the present Republican tendencies, to join in maintaining the Democratic party a strong and harmonious organization."

"We believe that in the present campaign attention should be concentrated chiefly upon our State government and state legislation; its paramount issues are those which relate to our domestic affairs. In place of colonial imperialism abroad we offer the people progressive democracy at home."

FRIDAY AFTERNOON OCT. 4, 1901

ADVERTISERS in the Transcript are the best business men in the community. Their advertisements are worth reading and they are the firms with whom to trade most advantageously.

THE BETTER BOAT.

Sir Thomas Lipton had not a word of complaint to make after the decisive defeat of his Shamrock yesterday. There was no complaint to make. Wind and weather conditions were up to the ideal which Shamrock supporters have held up as winning conditions for the British yacht. When Columbia crossed the finish line she had one more race to win to hold the cup. Shamrock must win three straight. And Sir Thomas took his defeat like a man, with highest praise for his captain and crew, and frank acknowledgment that the better boat won. Speaking of what has been called "Shamrock weather," one of the challengers said sadly last night, "There is no such thing as Shamrock weather."

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

"Take your choice" is the invitation the democrats of the state to the voters throug their platform adopted yesterday. "If you don't like one plank try another." Take any plank at all, the invitation is; anything so long as that "great preponderance" of the republican party which is "inconsistent" with everything but the merits of the republican principles is cut down. Apparently the democrats plan to denource the judgment of the American voters as "inconsistent" till the "preponderance" changes to the other side. Which will only be when the democratic party follows the good points of the republican party even more closely than it did in its lengthy and inclusive platform of yesterday, in which the existence of a governor's council is condemned and various other things are said.

TRANSCRIPT FIGURES

Several times within the last year or so the steady growth of the Transcript's circle of readers has given this paper occasion to record circulation reports as surprising to others as they were pleasing to us. Newspaper men in North Adams have frequently made estimates of what they conceived to be the highest figures which the circulation of a daily paper in this community could reach, and during the recent years of its growth the actual circulation of the Transcript has with great regularity reached and then surpassed these estimates. When the Transcript was able to publish the fact that its circulation has passed the 4500 mark there were those who said that the limit had been reached, and that no paper could hope to sell 5000 in this city and its surrounding towns.

The reports of the circulation department for the month of September have just been completed. As an intem of news interest to its readers as well as an evidence of our own pleasure in the fact, we are happy to tell how many others are reading the Transcript each evening with you.

During the month the Transcript printed a total of 124.441 papers, or an average per publishing day of 5,410. Deducting a total of 3089 spoiled and unsold papers, the actual daily average of circulation has been 5,276, a figure far in excess of what has been considered by men in a position to judge, the extreme limit of possibility. During the month news events demanded three extra editions, in order that the people of the city might have the news when they wished it. The Transcript has always been foremost in prompt and adequate recognition of the need of such occasions, and considers the publication of such extras a part of its work in the comunity and of its own life. But lest the part played by the extra editions in forming the total should be overestimated, we add a few more figures. Omitting entirely the figures for these editions, the Transcript published a total of 113,204 papers during September for its regular editions, and sold a daily average of 4,805.

On May 9, 1898, the Transcript published the report of its circulation for the preceding week. That week was in the very heart of the Spanish war. It was the week in which Dewey won the naval battle of Manila bay, and when the reading interest of the world was at fever heat. The report published showed an average daily circulation of 3,579, nearly 1,700 less than the average circulation of this paper for the past month. And the Transcript was then, as now, the most largely circulated paper in northern Berkshire. Since then its growth has been constant, with never a relapse, and gains due to special news matters of commanding interest have always remained, permanent additions to the circulation basis of the paper.

Columbia had Aeolus in its harness that time, all right enough.

Building torpedo boat destroyers which break in two is practically building automatic torpedo boat destroyer destroyers.

Another mine being developed along the Greylock range. The only thing needed to make Berkshire gold mining seem real is to have it put in a melodrama.

Professor George D. Herron, of both fame and notoriety, has sailed for Europe with his new wife. Report says that his idea of establishing a socialistic colony has not met with an overwhelming success.

The democratic platform pays a tribute to the late President McKinley's virtues, condemns anarchy, and says of the new president. "President Roosevelt is now entitled to the good wishes of all patriotic citizens, without prejudice to their right to criticise his acts or oppose his policies as future occasion may require."

The democrats of the state believe, according to their platform, that since the American principle of party government and "the division of the voters mainly into two great parties" is sound, therefore the "great preponderance of the republican party in this state and in the nation is inconsistent with the public interest." But the American principle, if it is sound, involves having two parties with sufficient in them to become "great." When only one of the parties has become great, it seems to be up to the minority party rather than to the American principle.

In view of what happened to Mussey the Vermont newspapers are perhaps justified in wondering how long "seven years" will mean in the sentence of ex-Cashier Lewis, who has just been sentenced to Rutland jail for the same term to which Mussey was sentenced. For instance, the Rutland News says, a trifle sarcastically: "No; there is no truth in the statement that Ex-Cashier D. Henry Lewis of Vergennes, temporarily residing in Rutland, had a slight attack of appendicitis this morning. But he has been a good liver, has been a man of fastidious tastes and ultra- sensitive temperaemnt and his early decline may reasonably be expected."

The Man Who Saw It All

It was an ancient mariner
Who stoppeth one of three.
"By the spyglass and yachting cap,
Now wherefore stoppest me?"

"Oh, gentle Sir," the mariner
Remarked, with earnest face.
"But list the while I tell you of
The wonderful yacht race.

"They crossed the line in splendid shape;
The wind was strong indeed;
And then she piped the larboard watch
And quickly took the lead."

"Which took the lead?" the stranger cried,
"Which yacht ahead did run?"
"It was," the mariner declared,
"It was the other one."

"Go on! Go on!" the stranger said,
"And tell me of the race,"
"I will," the mariner remarked,
"And then the last gave chase.

"They tacked and tacked until you'd think
The crew that oft did hang
Upon the rigging, was at best
A carpet-laying gang.

"And when the first yacht reached the stake
The whistles tooted gay."
"Which was the first" the stranger asked.
"The one that led the way.

"They came back on the other leg,"
The mariner went on,
"And one went by the very route
The other one had gone."

"What did they do?" the stranger said,
"What did they do, I beg?"
"As near as I can tell," quoth he,
"I think they pulled the leg.

"And then they neared the finish line;
The bettors cheered and cursed,
When proudly sweeping into view
The winner came in first!"

"But which was that?" the stranger cried,
"Oh, which was that, I pray?"
"Alas!" the mariner replied,
"I was ten miles away."

It was an ancient mariner
Who "Help!" did loudly cry.
It was the angry stranger man
Who smote him hip and thigh.

THE THEATERS

THE COMING ATTRACTION

Tickets on Sale Tomorrow for Two Big Things. "Heart and Sword" At Empire Tonight

Tickets will go on sale tomorrow for two productions to be given Wednesday evening, both of which deserve well filled houses. "Jack" Mason in "The altar of friendship" will be at the Richmond, and the new musical creation called the "Chaperons" will be at the Empire. The productions are about as radically different in character as they could be, but both promise excellent entertainment, and theater goers will find it a hard matter to make a choice.

"The chaperons," whose opening at Hartford and the success that attended it was reported in this column, appeared in Springfield Wednesday evening and the critics of the Republican of that city gave it high praise. His opinion will be of timely interest He says, among other things:

"A brand new musical piece by Fred erick Ranken and Isidore Witmark, called "The chaperons" was exhibited at Court Square theater last night by Frank L. Perley's comedians, and received a more than usually warm welcome. The crudities incident to its newness were very slight and a few public performances have done wonders in the way of smoothing over the rough places. A few more will doubtless result in the condensation of the first act, which is slow and uninteresting in comparison with the other two and it is safe to assume that the performance will in a short time have a swing that will place it high in the favor of a public that is very fond of these big conglomerations of music, fun and spectacle. The audience last evening was fairly large, but a return visit would draw twice as many people. Mr. Perley claims for his organization the finest chorus in existence, and the claim is not at all preposterous. A musical organization does not really come to mind of so fine a general average, though it has no "stars" of great eminence; and, in fact, the whole company has no "stars" in the professional use of the word. Mr. Perley's company was organized on the theory that if the best chorus possible could be secured and bright, clean musical comedy given with the setting of comic opera, the resulting entertainment would be what the public wants most."

"Jack" Mason, whose introduction to North Adams was made by himself, and most favorably given, comes again with the new prestige of a successful run at the Hollis theater in Boston where his play "The altar of friendship," was warmly received. Mr. Mason has left the Frohman ranks to head his own company, under the management of Jacob Litt. "The altar of friendship" is a new comedy drama by Mrs. Madelaine Ryley, who designed the leading role for Mr. Mason. He will be supported by a company which includes Nannette Comstock, Margaret Fuller, Dodson L. Mitchell, Walter Craven, Malcolm Williams, Laura Almosnino and Mrs. T. A. Eberle.

"Heart and sword" at the Empire this evening is likely to benefit quite largely from being the second attraction in the new house, and many will doubtless improve the opportunity of seeing it who were unable to be present Wednesday evening. Mr. Whiteside's romantic acting is of a quality that has won him praise in the sections where he is best known, and the story of his play which has been outlined in this column is one that promises an entertaining performance of rapid action romance. Mr. Whiteside's support is led by Miss Lelia Wolstan as the princess.

And "Eight bells" comes to the Richmond tomorrow evening. Which is about all that need be said, so well known and popular is the piece in which the Byrne brothers have tumbled their way into public favor. The familiar setting will be given it. In the first act comes the display of agility and pantomime work of the Byrnes in connection with the carriage which is composed chiefly of doors and wires. The second act has its ship scene, which requires one of the heaviest stage settings carried by any company. The ship turns over and over, while the Byrnes do remarkable things in the way of keeping right side up with care.

The followng dispatch from R. H. Simonds, manager of Howard Kyle who plays at the Richmond next Thursday evening, was received by the Transcript this morning from Trenton, N. J., "Howard Kyle opened second season Nathan Hale tonight, to capacity. Return engagement. Company and performance beyond criticism."

Theatrical Notes

The sales of seats for both Denman Thompson in "The old homestead" at the Richmond and "York state folks" at the Empire Monday evening are progressing well.

"Mam'selle 'Awkins" originally booked for this evening in Manager Callahan's Pittsfield theater and for tomorrow night at the Empire, is now to play both dates in the Pittsfield house.

Sal Smith Russell is reported quite ill at his summer home in Edgartown.

Marguerite Sylva in "Princess Chic" which played here last season and which returns to the Richmond October 30 is now playing in the Tremont in Boston and has apparently captured the city. The Boston Herald Tuesday had a large sized cartoon caricaturing the leading people in the company.

Charles Frohman the manager, has received a cable from Sir Henry Irving in which he stated that his repertoire for the opening week of his engagement at the Knickerbocker theater in New York, which lasts three weeks, and begins on October 14, would be for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday matinees, "King Charles I;" Friday evening, "The merchant of Venice," and Saturday night, "Louis XI."

The nuisance of the ticket speculators before many of the New York theaters has become so great that a new crusade against it has begun by indignant patrons. Some managers seem to have no trouble in abating the nuisance, while others claim it is impossible. The latter are believed to be in league with the speculators.

Joseph Jefferson proposes to build a home for aged actors on Buttermilk bay opposite "Crow's Nest" and the town of Bourne is to be asked to lay out a road to the site selected. If the town votes the road the building will be begun at once for completion in the spring.

COMMUNICATION

Mr. Hall's Letter

Editor of the Transcript:

The letter of Mr. Hall, candidate for nomination for senator, will be widely read and must be accepted. No candidate for legislative honors in this district can stand on any other platform. It would be suicide for him to have said less, and his admirers will accept this as his present conviction.

Why was it necessary to declare his loyalty to and support of Governor Crane's administration? Why mention the veto at all? The approval of his administration is universal throughout the state. Whence this lack of confidence in Mr. Hall? We in Berkshire county are especially "set up" on our Berkshire governor.

He braved the displeasure and to the surprise of the Boston elevated crowd vetoed their little game, and won the respect and admiration of the whole commonwealth.

When Mr. Hall speaks of his future support in similar measures does he think any similar measure will come up this winter, when they know so well how the governor is built? Are the voters reassured?

When Mr. Hall refers to the dictates of his conscience as his guide, we fear and tremble anew—fear that "it will mutiny in his heart" at the supreme moment.

Was it not the same conscience whose dictates guide him, that governed his vote in the house three winters ago on those gas trust and pipe line combinations?

Corporate greed with a "barrel" on the one hand, and the rights of the people on the other. "Conscience makes cowards of us all."

REPUBLICAN.

Williamstown, Oct. 3, 1901.

Fourteen of the young women in Frank L. Perley's comedians have organized a mandolin club, consisting of five first and five second mandolins and four mandolas. The young women had a special teacher during the six weeks rehearsals in New York and have become proficient in a musical number written by Isadore Witmark, that they are utilized in the second act at each performance of "The Chaperons." The new lyric comedy, "The Chaperons" is being produced on an operatic scale and will be seen in this city at the Empire theater on Wednesday, Oct. 9.

—There was one initiation at the meeting of St. Francis L. C. B. A. last evening.

—A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. John F. McCune of Hathaway street.

—The door prize at the Woman's relief corps fair last night was won by Miss St. Denis, who had number 1346.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Clara C. daughter of E. D. Church, to John S. Thomas of Blackstone, formerly of Blackinton.

—St. Francis L. C. B. A. will give a Hallow'een party and social Thursday evening, October 31. Plans were completed at the meeting last night.

—James, the 3-year-old son of C. H. Chapin, fractured his right arm at the elbow last evening by falling from a piazza. Dr. Bushnell was called and reduced the fracture.

—James Bryson, 16 years old, fell while going down hill on Cady street this afternoon and one bone in his left wrist was broken. The fracture was reduced by Dr. M. M. Brown.

—Mount Hope lodge, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., will give its first whist party of the season this evening in Odd Fellows' lodge room, to which the public is cordially invited.

—The special train on which the A. O. H. divisions will go to Pittsfield tomorrow night will leave here at 7.30, and returning will leave Pittsfield at 11.30. A special rate has been secured for the trip.

—Berkshire county Pomona grange will hold its annual meeting at Dalton on Thursday, October 10, morning and afternoon. Deputy Day will be present. The fifth degree will be conferred at the afternoon session.

—The official call for the First district republican representative convention has been issued and wil be found in another column. The convention will be held in the district court room Saturday, the 12th, at 3 p. m.

—The first senior rhetoricals of the year were held at Drury this noon. Those who took part were Charles Fake, Harry Bowen, Catherine Allen, Celia Abraham, Alice Bemis, Amy Bruce, Charles Gunther, and Anna Collins.

—The Krum and Snyder families took a ride up Greylock mountain yesterday in honor of Mrs. Fred Jones and her son Ralph, of Chicago, who are visiting here. Though somewhat cool it was a beautiful day for such a trip and the view was perfect.

—A pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Miss Jennie Capron last night by the Amity club and friends. During the evening games were played and refreshments served Before departing the club presented the host with a ring as a remembrance of the happy occasion.

—The Red Men's field day at Holyoke yesterday was a great success. The parade and sports of morning and afternoon, and concert and reception in the evening were enjoyed by all. North Adams was represented only by individual members and took no part in parade or sports.

—The invitations for the wedding of Miss Margaret Frances Collins and James K. Maloney, which will take place in St. Francis church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 16 have been issued. A reception will be held from 11 until 1 o'clock at 228 Ashland street.

—No specially important business came before the board of health at its meeting last night. The North Adams tallow company asked for a permit to set up at its works on Ashland street a steam-jacket kettle to be used in melting rendered tallow. Action on the matter was deferred.

—It is probable that the democratic district committee will call the representative convention for the afternoon or evening of October 12, when the republican representative convention will be held, but the call will not be issued till after the hour of the republican convention be known, so that there may be no conflict on that point.

—Inspector Charles A. Dam of this city went to Pittsfield yesterday and looked over the mercantile establishments in regard to the employment of minors and women over the legal hours for such labor. There has been considerable complaint heretofore in factories and stores which did not post notices and when the inspector arrived excuses were given that they had been torn down. This is overcome by having them framed.

—The Golden Star whist party was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Napoleon Johndrow. 81 River street. There were two tables, and four prizes were awarded in the following order: Mrs. Rayno, Mrs. Belleveau, Mrs. Hocking, and Mrs. Snyder. The next party will be held next Thursday afternoon at No. 3 new Blackinton block. In the evening another party will be held in Elks hall.

—The annual convention of the Berkshire county Woman's Christian temperance union was held today in Unity church at Pittsfield with a large attendance of delegates. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Nathaniel Seaver, Jr., and after the opening exercises, reports of superintendents in the different departments were heard, as also from the various unions. The Frances E. Willard union of Pittsfield furnished the dinner and the afternoon session had an interesting program. The election of new officers for the year is being held this afternoon. There will be no evening session.

Miss Lura Cary has resigned her place in the office of the Hunter machine company and will leave the city tomorrow for Columbia, S. C., to become private secretary of Dr. Osborne, president of Benedict college. She is succeeded at Hunter's by Miss Pratt, formerly stenographer for the Sampson shoe company.

Fred Dallo of Baltimore, formerly of this city, is visiting friends here for a few weeks. Mr. Dallo played in the band of this city when he lived here and went to Baltimore last winter, where he has since played in theater orchestras.

Charles I. King, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Humphrey and B. P. Farrell, all of Pittsfield, arrived in this city yesterday to attend the Jones-Cary wedding tonight. They are stopping at the Wellington.

Miss Geneva Avery entertained a few of her friends last evening in honor of C. Cary of Rutland.

Mrs. B. E. Curtis of Middle Granville N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Vandenburg of No. 3 new Blackinton block.

P. H. Hopper of this city left yesterday for Boston where he will spend a few days.

In Another County

It has been decided that the retrial of Archie Mull for murder shall be held in Otsego or Chenango counties, a change of place having been asked by the defense,

Going to Albany

Miss F. Bessie Curtis has finished her training in the North Adams hospital training school for nurses and after two weeks vacation assumes the position of head nurse in the Albany city hospital.

Smoke Filled the Halls

The occupants of the Clark block at the corner of State and Summer streets were given a bad scare last evening when the halls were discovered filled with smoke. Chief Byars of the fire department and the police were summoned, but the source of the smoke was not discovered. A watch was kept all night.

Temperance Advocate Reforms

Thomas N. Doutney, the temperance orator who worked in this city for a time, and who "broke over" and was arrested for drunkenness in Bridgeport, Conn., not long ago, is visiting in Dalton and trying to make a new start. He says in an interview with the Eagle: "I made the 'break' and am heartily sorry for it. It was one of those unfortunate occurrences that comes to the best of us at one time or another"

Delicate Operation Performed

Dr. Stafford performed an important operation at the hospital this morning on Miss Phipp of Charlemont. The young woman was thrown from a horse July 4 and her arm was broken above the elbow. The doctor in charge was unable to get the bones to unite, the break being a ragged one, and the operation consisted in trimming the ends of the bones and wiring them together, by which means it is hoped to secure a perfect union. The operation was witnessed by several physicians.

The Forester's Bazaar

At the meeting of North Adams court, Foresters of America, last night one application for membership was received. Lewis Smith, Sr., resigned from the ways and means committee and P. J. Pendergast was appointed in his place.

The grand union bazaar of the three courts of foresters in this city will open in the Columbia October 19. Grand Chief Ranger William H. Stafford of Lowell will be present on the opening night.

INCURABLY INSANE

Such the Testimony of Expert at Brainard Trial. Strong Defense Being Made

Portland, Me., Oct. 4.—Among the experts who testified yesterday for the defense in the trial of G. Brainard for the murder of two of his fellow workmen last June, was Dr. Bigelow T. Sanborn, superintendent of the state institution for the insane at Augusta. Dr. Sanborn stated that he had been present at the various examinations made upon Brainard to determine his sanity or his insanity. Brainard was also sent to the insane hospital at Augusta on May 17th and remained there until Sept. 30th, during which time Dr. Sanborn had ample opportunity to make careful observations on his case.

While at Augusta Brainard one day attacked another patient named McEntire, at the hospital. He choked him severely and serious results would have ensued but for the timely arrival upon the scene of a keeper. All of Brainard's actions, in th opinion of Dr. Sanborn, were those of a man of unsound mind. His case is entirely similar to the cases of others who have been adjudged insane. Dr. Sanborn testifies that he believes Brainard is incurable.

DIED FROM INJURIES

Received at the Arnold Print Works Wednesday. Fell on a Vat

William Fitzgerald, 17 years old, died this morning at 9.30 o'clock at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fitzgerald, 81 Veazie street, his death apparently being due to an accident which befell him Wednesday afternoon at the Arnold print works, where he was employed. His father states that he was working in the bleach house and was standing on a plank, which was pulled out from under him by a boy. He fell about eight feet and struck on his stomach across the edge of a vat, into which he afterwards fell. He was taken out and a doctor was called, and a little later the young man walked to his home He had been in bed since that time and had suffered much pain, and the family feel positive that the accident was the cause of his death, He leaves besides his parents several brother and sisters. His father in speaking of the case this afternoon indicated that he might look for damages.

The funeral will be held at St. Francis church Sunday afternoon.

DARIEL BROKE WORLD'S RECORD

With Woman Driver. The Successes of Other North Adams Horses

Dariel, formerly owned by Potter Bros. and driven by Miss Nina Phelps of Waterville, Ct., beat the world's record for women drivers by 3¼ seconds at the meet of the Island Park driving association at Albany yesterday .The horse trotted the mile in 2.09¼. The best previous record for a woman driver was 2.12½. Connor, driven by A. P. McDonald, trotted as pacemaker. Miss Phelps was presented with a large bouquet and Dariel was crowned with flowers.

Annie Leyburn, the fast pacer which Potter Bros of this city recently purchased met defeat in a match race with Roan Wilkes, owned in Springfield, at the annual agricultural fair in Stafford Springs, Conn., yesterday. It was by no means an easy victory as the Springfield horse was forced to establish a new track record of 2.13¼, three seconds faster than the old record which was equalled Wednesday by him when the same two horses contested. The match race was the event of the day and neither horse made a skip. Roan Wilkes led by a length and a half.

At Stafford Springs two other local horses started and were money winners, Ethel Healey, owned by J. A. Johnson of this city won second in the 2.22 class, which was decided in three straight h ats in 2.21½, 2.22¼ and 2.23½. Star Lilley, a pacer owned by James Lilley of this city, won third in the 2.35 class. The time was 2.31 and 2.37¼. In the running race Phil Daly, owned by James Purtell of this city, won second money.

The trotters and pacers of F. M. Dodges string in Albay, including Brown Heels, Oxford Chimes, Birdie B. and Bill Dinehart, will be shipped to the Pleasure park in Pittsfield tomorrow and will race no more this season. This was caused by Mr. Dodge's severe injury, consisting of a broken shoulder, as reported in the Transcript Thursday, and the owners of the horses will allow no one else to drive or handle them. Several entries made for fall meets were canceled yesterday.

Tomorrow's Football Game

One of the chief sporting events of tomorrow will be the football game between the Adams Athletics and North Adams teams at Howland park. A rattling good game is expected, and there is sure to be a good crowd. To those who have never seen an association game this will be an excellent opportunity to witness a good one. The game is increasing in popularity every week despite the deliberate attempts to injure it. Besides being a scientific game it is invigorating, and there is always some play going on which brings to players and spectators a good healthy excitement. There will be several changes in the North Adams team. Captain Cunliffe, than whom there is no better back in the county, will play for the first time this season. F. C. McIntyre will resume his old position at center half, and a new player will be tried at left halfback. Two players have been chosen for this position, Hector Fraser and Ralph Brooks. A definite choice will not be made until they appear at the grounds. James Sproul will play center forward and Fred Smith outside right forward.

No Reserve Police Appointments

There is some inquiry as to when the mayor is to appoint reserve policemen, ther being none now on the reserve force. When seen today regarding the matter Mayor Wilkinson said there is no occasion for haste in this direction, as the regular force has been enlarged and there is less need of a reserve force now than there was before. There is also, perhaps, some misunderstanding of the clause in the charter which provides for reserve officers. The charter does not make the appointement of reserve officers imperative, but says such officers may be appointed, to the number of five. There are now 10 or a dozen names on the eligible list and the probability is that appointments will be made ultimately, but the mayor feels that there is no pressure calling for immediate action and it may therefore be some time before any additions are made to the police force.

PROVE IT ANYTIME

By the Evidence of North Adams People

The daily evidence citizens right here at home supply is proof sufficient to satisfy the greatest skeptic. No better proof can be had. Here is a case. Hear it:

Mr. John W. Sargent of 119 Main street says:—"For four or fie years I had something wrong kith my kidneys. It took me right over the hips in the small of the back and extended to the front of the abdomen. I thought and think so still that the distress in front was owing more to the stomach than the kidneys, and I was much anoyed by too frequent action of the kidney secretions. If I sat for a time, to get up and walk away gave me excruciating acute pain in the small of the back. It stuck right to me and nothing even made any impression on it until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Burlingame & Darby's drug store. They did help me. I found in one box greater relief than I had obtained in all my former doctoring."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

WILLIAMSTOWN

THEIR STORY WORKED WELL.

Two young men have been working a cunning sceme to get money for the past two weeks, but they have contented themselves with small amounts and have avoided arrest. They began operations just before college opened and their first victim was Terrance E. Quinn, the Evening Herald reporter, whom they asked to buy some crackers and cheese for them. They said they were poor boys who had come here to work their awy through college and that they had not received money which they expected from home. They were penniless and only asked for enough money to buy crackers and cheese to appease their hunger until the next day. They said they hesitated to ask fellow students because of the embarrasment, and ventured to ask for the loan from the newspaper man until the next day, when they would return the money. The reporter was liberal and gave them a half dollar which they thanked him until the "gym" clock gave warning of the approaching hour for the stores to close. They hastened away for their crackers and cheese, but inside of a half hour were seen smoking pod cigars and eating Huyler's best, while the reporter contented himself with a pipe and 15-cent mixed candy, two for a quarter. Several other people in town were worked similarly, though the stories were varied as the occasion demanded.

WILL PREACH AT DALTON UNION SERVICES.

Rev Dr. James E. C. Sawyer will preach in the opera house in Dalton Saturday and Sunday evenings at a union service of the Protestant churches of the town. Revival meetings have been held in that town during the week and will close with the above services. Sunday morning Dr. Sawyer will preach in the Congregational church in Dalton. The pastor of the church, Rev. George Wakeman Andrews, wil occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church here Sunday morning and evening. The rally service of Sunday school will be held one week from Sunday instead of Sunday, as stated, and will take the place of the regular Sunday school session instead of the morning service in the church.

TOMORROW'S BASEBALL GAME.

The baseball game between the freshmen and sophomores will be played on Weston field Saturday afternoon. The parade, which will precede the game, will be formed in front of the gymnasium, and the line of march will be up Main street to Spring street, and down Spring street and New street to Weston field. An improvised band will lead the column, and following will be twelve Indian warriors in war paint. Following will be twelve pale faces. There will also be many other amusing features in the parade. The freshmen team has been practicing for several days and promises to give the sophomores a hard game.

SOUGHT AID FROM GRAND ARMY

Two men, who said they were Grand Army men, sought aid from the local post Wednesday night. They applied to Commander Walker, to whom they told their story. They said they were on their way to Chelsea to get into the soldiers' home, but that they had no money. They satisfied Commander Walker that they were worthy of aid and he directed them to W. B. Bryant, an officer of the post, with a letter of introduction. Mr. Bryant gave them liberal assistance and they left. Later in the night they were seen around the Station and it is not known what caused their delay in leaving town.

WILL ENTER SCHOOL OF PHARMACY.

Edward Dempsey, clerk in the drug store of P. A. Chambers, has resigned his position and will enter the Boston school of pharmacy. His resignation was unexpected and is much regretted by Mr. Chambers, since he had been employed in the store two years or more and is a very competent clerk. Before working for Mr. Chambers, Mr. Dempsey was employed in a North Adams drug store, and he has the business well learned. Mr. Chambers has not yet secured his successor.

HIGH SCHOOL MATTERS.

The football field in the rear of the high school building was marked out yesterday and it is a splendid field. The work was done by E. M. Dickinson of the college. The high school team will play the Bennington high school at Bennington, Vt., tomorrow afternoon. The game with Drury, scheduled for yesterday, was postponed because the field was not marked out.

ACCIDENT ON WESTON FIELD.

While several boys were playing on Weston field yesterday one of them, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander, fell from the bleachers on the football field and broke his left wrist. Dr. F. W. Olds was on the field at the time and attended the boy. The boys were running across the bleachers when the accident happened.

Williams will play Columbia at New York Saturday afternoon. The Williams lineup will be much the same as in the game with the Laureates which was as follows: Center, Mossman and Leighton; guards, Cole and Cooper; tackles, Jones and Hatch; ends, O'Neil and Wilbur; quarterback, Moore; left halfback, Jaeckel and Graves; right halfback, Watson and Lawrence; full back, Peabody and Mears. Several Williams students will accompany the team.

Manager Jeffrey has been obliged to cancel the football game with Holy Cross and the Holy Cross boys are indignant over his action. Wesleyan has also cancelled its game with Holy Cross, and a dispatch from Worcester says that Holy Cross is indignant and that it may break its baseball relations with the two college teams. The action of Manager Jeffrey could not be avoided and was in no way meant to offend Holy Cross or to put it to any inconvenience.

Charles Roebuck and William Warner spent yesterday in Troy, N. Y., and Albany, N. Y.

Mrs. Wesley Miller, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the North Adams hospital yesterday.

The lecture in the Congregational church Monday evening swelled the parsonage building fund by $39.10.

The wires are being strung for the Postal telegraph office which will be opened in the store of G. S. Azhderian on Spring street in a few days. The office will be in charge of Ernest L. Goodrich, who has been learning telegraphy in the North Adams office of the company.

H. T. Proteor and family will close their summer home on West Main street October 15 and go to New York city for the winter.

Mrs. Fabens of Salem will serve tea at the golf house of the Taconic club Saturday afternoon.

Charles Parks of Englewood, N. J., Albert Benson of Albany, N. Y. and J. M. Birnie of Springfield, members of the class of 1901 of Williams college, are spending a few days in town.

WANTED—By a college student a position taking care of furnace in a private house. Address A. B., Williamstown.

WHAT SHALL WE EAT

To Keep Healthy and Strong

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best, in spite of the claims made by vegetarians and food cranks generally.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables or grains.

Dr. Julius Remusson on this subject says: Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat plenty of meat. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily strengthened by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three or four hours, while the malt diastase also contained in Stuart's Tablets cause the perfect digestion of starchy foods, like potatoes, bread, etc., and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply the pepsin and diatase so necessary to perfect digestion, and any form of indigestion and stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach will be overcome by their daily use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its complete digestion by the systematic use of a safe harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, peptones and diastase, which actually performs the work of digestion and give the abused stomach a chance to rest and to furnish the body and brain with the necessary nutriment. Cheap cathartic medicines masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for relief or cure of indigestion because they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food and to solve the riddle and cure the indigestion is to make daily use at meal time of a safe preparation which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles and all this can truly be said of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

All druggists throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain sell them at the uniform price of fifty cents for full treatment.

Our Farm Animals.

For every man, woman and child in this country there is an average of two farm animals. There are about 40,000,000 each of sheep and swine, about 45,000,000 cows and other cattle and about 16,000,000 horses and mules.

Our Foreign Born.

The foreign born population of the United States is more than 10,000,000.

Colds are serious things. They lead to worse things. A cold is the seed of consumption. Croup is a cold's half-brother—it is generally caused by cold, and many a little life has been snuffed out by it because the proper remedy was not at hand.
Dr. Hooker's Cough and Croup Syrup gives relief at once. It has saved thousands of lives. Every mother should see that it is always in the house. Don't wait till you need it—that may be too late. Contains no opium—absolutely safe—endorsed by physicians for 50 yrs. Made only by Charles B. Kingsley, Northampton, Mass.

REDUCING housekeeping expenses is not difficult. Always remember that three out of four persons care little about breakfast so long as they have good coffee. That makes the meal. Chase & Sanborn's high grade coffee is the cheapest to use because it takes so much less for the required strength. It is grown on the richest plantations. They take every pound produced. You can reduce your coffee bills nearly one fourth by ordering this high grade. Try it!

WOULD LIKE NOMINATION

John L. Barker Thinks There are Local Men Fit for Representative.

John L. Barker, well known as one of this town's oldest residents says he does not like the idea of even having to think of the republican party, having to go to Savoy for a candidate. Mr. Barker says that while he has naught to say against his honored friend N. B. Baker, still he believes he is trespassing when he comes here to look for this year's nomination for representative. The party does not need to go to Savoy when she has good capable men here and Savoy ought to wait until her turn comes. If this town wishes a candidate why not give the honor to a local man. Mr. Barker would be pleased to be the candidate of the republican party, whose principles he has always upheld and it might be well to consider this offer. Mr. Barker is an old campaigner and as he has proven in his tax collector contests, he knows how to secure votes

A NEW WALK.

The Gift of Ladies' Aid Society to the Baptist Church.

A new concrete sidewalk has been built from the side entrance to the Baptist church on Commercial street to the sidewalk on the west side of the street. When the work was started by the Nashua concrete company, the church did not know what was meant or who was author of the work. However, it has since been learned that the Ladies' Aid of the church made the contract and will pay the bill. The walk will not only prove convenient but adds much to the appearance of the church grounds.

"THE DEEMSTER."

The social life and peculiarities of the Manxman, were little known until the time Hall Caine, a Manxman himself, undertook to embody them in fiction; but since his novels began to appear and his dramas to be played they are no longer a mystery to the outside world. "The Deemster" which is announced for production at the opera house on next Tuesday evening the 8th instant is said to be a faithful and thrilling pictures of life on the Isle of Man, and as the company interpreting it has been selected with an eye to each member's fitness for the parts he and she plays a most enjoyable performance may be anticipated. As a rule melo dramas are not distinguished for a very high order of literary merit, but in the case of a writer like Hall Caine, much better work may be looked for. His "The Christian" marked a long step forward in the way of melo dramatic writing and if what is reported of 'The Deemster" be correct the outlook for a fine performance is most encouraging.

FOOTBALL GAMES TOMORROW.

There will be plenty of sport in the way of football tomorrow. The high school team which was scheduled to play in Great Barrington will meet Drury of North Adams at Forest park at 3 o'clock and an interesting game is promised. The game will start at 3 o'clock. It will be the local team's first game and Fletcher Carpenter, instructor of drawing, who has recovered from his illness, will coach.

There will also be a rugby game of football at Renfrew, where the Renfrews and the Adams teams will meet. M. Lothrup is captain of the Adams team and it is made up, principally of the players who were Crescents last year.

A game of association football will be played at Howland park between the Adams football club's team and a team from North Adams.

WILL SERVE THE SUPPERS.

The following are the committees and dates for the parish house suppers by St. Mark's church members: October 29, December 24, February 18, April 15 and June 10., Mrs. Bixby, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Cadigon, Mrs. Zahner, Miss Martin, Miss Jennings; November 12 January 7, March 4, April, 29, June 24, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Shaw, Miss Deuel, Miss Bliss, Miss Molson; October 1, November 26, January 21, March 18, May 13, Mrs. J. S. Adams, Miss Edith Adams, Miss Elizabeth K. Adams, Mrs. John S. Adams, Jr., Mrs. S. L. A. Hall, Miss Hattie Osborne; October 15, December 10, February 4, April 1 May 27, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Follett, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Andler, Miss Crowell, Miss Serena Adams.

DANCES THIS EVENING.

There will be two dances in town this evening and both promise to be well attended. Company M will hold their postponed social in the Armory and it will be the first of a series of winter dances. The Adams musical association will furnish music and a special electric car will be run for the accomodation of North Adams people.

The Daughters of Erin will also hold a dance in the A. O. H. hall and have engaged McGrath's orchestra to furnish music and Daniel Holleran will prompt. Both organizations are sure to have successful events and a pleasant time is assured at either.

NEW PICTURE EXHIBIT AT LIBRARY:

The Adams library is in receipt of another exhibition of photographs which are now on exhibition in its rooms. The views are of the Hawaiian islands and besides maps and different places of interest on the island, also show the manners and customs of the people, the leper colony, industries, fruits, trees, etc. There are 119 photographs in the exhibit.

MARRIAGES AT ST. MARK'S CHURCH.

There will be two weddings at St. Mark's church tomorrow. The first will be at 11 o'clock in the morning, when Mrs. Martha Remshaek of the West road and F. William Kittler will be married. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the marriage of Miss Anna Stamnitz to Anton Werner will take place. Mr. Werner is a veteran, having recently returned from the Philippines. Rev. Dr. Zahner will perform both marriages.

SUPPER AT THE BARRETT.

There was a private party at the new Barrett hotel Thursday evening. It was in honor of their guest, Miss Ina Coe of Yates, N. Y., by Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Harrington of Liberty street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Allen and Mrs. H. E. Harrington of Crandall street, Mrs. W. H. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Chase. After supper a pleasant time was spent in the hotel parlors.

TO HOLD A DANCE.

The regular meeting of the barbers' union was held in Collins' block Thursday evening. Besides transacting routine business, it was decided to hold a dance in the A. O. H. hall, Friday evening, October 18. The union held a very successful dance last spring and it is the intention to have the coming event as successful. The committee of arrangements is Michael Murphy, John Garney and Frank Merritt. The Adams musical association will furnish music.

SOCIALIST RALLY THIS EVENING.

There is promise of a large attendance at the socialist-labor party's rally in Hermann hall on Spring street this evening. The party's candidate for governor, Michael T. Berry will speak. Charles Stoeber will preside and the meeting will open at 8 o'clock.

The League of the Sacred Heart devotions will be held at St. Thomas church this evening.

The Misses Whalen of Troy, N. Y., and Boulger of North Adams have been guests of Miss Katherine White of Willow street.

Four cases of drunkenness were disposed of in court this morning.

Mrs. Patrick Gray of Windsor Locks, Conn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Malley of Summer street.

Fred Green has returned from a visit in Greenfield.

Mrs. A. E. Millard of Springfield, formerly of this town, is the guest of local friends.

The coon supper was not served at the Barrett hotel last night, but will be served this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Zahner leave on Monday for Philadelphia where they will be guests at "The Lansdowne" of Professor and Mrs. Hay of Girard college. Provision has been made for the services at St. Mark's church which will be held as usual.

Mrs. Jane Renfrew has closed her house off East street, and she and her sister, Miss Margaret Haworth, have taken rooms at the home of C. H. Haworth of Commercial street.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGrath of Summer street are visiting in Montreal

Harry Davis is visiting in Niagara Falls.

Elmer Cummings, captain of the Adams football team left for Fall River to play with that city's team tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. August Rupprecht of Summer street have gone to the Pan-American exposition. They accompanied Mrs. Small who has been visiting here.

Paul Hanlech and Miss Annie Makor were married by Rev. Dr. Zahner last Saturday evening.

The regular meeting of Golden Link Rebekah lodge will be held this evening.

Tree Warden Prindle has finished his work of trimming the shade trees about town.

Catazina, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Banais, died Thursday and the funeral will be held tomorrow.

R. Desauxtels and Jules Lord have returned from Springfield where they attended the big French meeting.

WEDDED AT HER HOME

Miss Edith M. Underwood Becomes the Bride of Howard A. Lewis

At eight o'clock last evening Edith M. Underwood and Howard A. Lewis were united in marriage, Rev. W. L. Tenney performing the ceremony. The wedding took place at the bride's home No. 488 Main street, and for a home wedding was largely attended, about 125 relatives and friends having gathered to celebrate the event. The house was lavishly decorated with flowers. The ceremony itself was extremely pretty. Two little ribbon girls, unrolling yards of white ribbon, formed a long aisle down the center of the room, and meeting the bridal party, preceded it down this aisle to the bay window, where the clergyman stood. During the marriage service the bridal couple stood under a bell of flowers hung from the center of a flowered arch, where the bride was given away by her father. The ring service was used. After the ceremony refreshments were served by Caterer Kohler.

The bridesmaid was Miss Frances Morgan of Holyoke, and the best man Arthur Livermore, also of that city. Edwin H. Underwood, brother of the bride, acted as usher. The ribbon girls were Pauline McDonnell of this city and Enid Daniels of Williamstown The bride wore a gown of white baptiste trimmed with satin, and carried white bride's roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in white organdie and carried red carnations. The bride presented the bridesmaid with a gold bracelet and the ribbon girls with rings, while the best man received a scarf pin from the groom

The bride is well known in the city, having grown up here and graduated from Drury high school. She is very popular among the young people, and has the good wishes of many friends. The groom is a native of North Adams, and also attended Drury. He is at present a designer in the Braytonville mill.

On returning from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will live in Braytonville.

There were many out of town people present at the wedding, among them Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan and their daughter Fanny, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith with their daughter Bertha and son Raymond, Mrs. T. H. Wood, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. N. B. Clark and son, all of Holyoke; John Duff of Boston, Dana G. Prescott of Concord, N. H., Mrs. A. Robertson of Troy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Baush of Springfield.

BABY SHOW TOMORROW

And All Contests But One Will Close in the Evening

The attendance at the Woman's Relief corps fair last evening was better than on some nights, though for some unexplained reason the public has not responded in its usual generous spirit to this effort of the helpmeets of the old soldiers. The fair deserves well at the hands of the public because of its real worth in the line of attractions as well as because of the cause represented.

Dancing was enjoyed all the evening again to good music, and there were occasional entertainment numbers by Miss Minnie Donovan, pianist, and Miss Leonora Preavey, violinist, who played together and separately.

"The family album," an attractive and enjoyable form of entertainment if it isn't novel, will be given tonight. Tomorrow afternoon there will be a baby show from 3 to 6. Several prizes will be offered and there will be no limit on the age. A supper will also be served from 5 to 7.

The close of the fair with the awarding of all prizes and closing of all contests save that for the piano will be held tomorrow night, when the attendance at the hall should be large. The piano contest will not close for two weeks and this must prove a great source of profit if the women are to have much to show for all their efforts.

Up the Narrow Guage Today

The state railroad commissioners, who arrived in this city yesterday, spent the night at the Wellington and left on the return trip over the Boston & Maine road at 8 o'clock this morning. They stopped at the other end of the tunnel and made a tour of inspection over the narrow guage railroad.

The commissioners are Amton White and Grafton Upton of Boston. They were accompanied by prominent officials of the Boston & Maine road, among them Supt. F. O. Melcher, General Manager Frank Barr, and Assistant Chief Engineer A. S. Cheever. Altogether there were seven in the party.

May Try To Save League

Some of the admirers and backers of association football believe the league may yet be restored and the four clubs induced to live in peace and concord and finish the championship series. They do not deny the serious state of affairs following the stormy meeting of Tuesday night, but they do hope that when all parties have had a week to think the matter over, there will be a better feeling and the sensible determination to bury petty differences will prevail. A meeting may be called this week.

Have To Practice at Night

A number of young men of this city who are interested in Rugby football have formed a team and have been practicing for about two weeks at night on the vacant lot of the Sampson shoe shop. Most of them are employed during the day and are able to practice only by moonlight and the light from the electric lamp. Two games have been arranged, one with Holyoke on October 15 and the second with Shelburne Falls October 29.

Peru Ahead Again

For several years the treasurer of the town of Peru has held the record of being the first to pay the county tax. This year as formerly Peru takes the banner for prompt payment. The little hill town has a hustling tax collector and treasurer.

OWNED UP TO BREAKING OVER

And Judge Phelps Fined Him $5, Other Cases in Court Today

Judge Phelps had just time to dispose of the criminal cases in court this morning before he departed on the 9.25 train for the Pan-American. Assistant Justice Parkhurst supplied his place on the bench, to hear the civil cases on the docket for today.

The criminal cases were all ordinary drunks, two being fined $5 and one placed on probation. A rather unusual incident broke the monotony before the criminal sitting was over. Frank Sherman, whose term of probation had expired today, was asked if he kept the terms of said probation, according to the usual form.

"No. I haven't," admitted Frank, with charming, but reluctant candor.

For a moment the court was nonplussed by the strangeness of the thing, but on recommendation of the probation officer the honest man was fined $5 for his pains.

The case of Charles Smith, charged with violating board of health rules, was filed away. The board claimed that Smith was in the habit of stabling at times more than the allowed number of horses in his stable on Holden street. The defendant pleaded nolo contendere and promised to comply with the rules in the future.

William G. Roberts, in behalf of the United Law and Adjusting company sued Thomas O'Shea in an action of contract for $250. When the plaintiff's declaration had been read, however, Justice Parkhurst informed the counsels that he could not sit upon the case having already formed an opinion as to the validity of the contract. The case was therefore continued until a week from today.

"BUSTED" BOOM FOR BISHOP

Pittsfield Friends of Rev. Mr. Nickerson Find They Have Made Mistake

The Pittsfield people are considerably surprised to find out that the candidacy of Rev. Thomas W. Nickerson, Jr., rector of St. Stephen's church, for the appointment as bishop of the new Western diocese of Massachusetts is meeting with opposition. In Berkshire county there is a strong opposition. In Hampden county there is another candidate, In Worcester there is a candidate, and the friends of Rev. Mr. Nickerson are a little worried over the reception of the semi-official announcement in a Springfield paper recently, of the candidacy of the rector of St. Stephen's.

An Episcopal clergyman, and a friend of Rev. Mr. Nickerson, sent to a Springfield paper for publication an article written for the purpose of trying the temper of the churches of the county and this section on the putting forth of Rev. Mr. Nickerson as the candidate of the western part of the state. The article was illustrated with a fine half tone picture of the candidate. Papers were mailed to all the clergy of the county and to the leading laymen and members of the Episcopal church in this part of the state.

This form of booming seems to have been a mistake, however. The friends of the candidate were pleased to read of his virtues, but opponents were afforded an opportunity to be sarcastic, which they were not slow in embracing. The rector of one of the prominent county churches said "as a want ad it was an excellent article." From Lenox word came that Rev. Harold Arrowsmith of Trinity church was opposed to the campaign of the Pittsfield rector and it was significantly added that Lenox is bound to have a good deal to say in the new diocese because of the wealth of its parish.

Rev. Charles J. Palmer of Lanesboro engaged in county work is said to be a personal friend and energetic worker for Rev. Dr. Lawrence of Stockbridge.

Two of the strongest candidates for the office of bishop are in Rev. John C. Brooks of Springfield and Rev. Dr. Vincent of Worcester. The name of Rev. William Grosvenor of New York is still mentioned in connection with the election.

NOT IN POLITICS

President Gillett of the Berkshire Company Interviewed on Senatorial Fight

Both of the Pittsfield daily papers and several of her correspondents for outside papers have seen the hand of one street railway or the other in everything political lately, particularly the senatorial fight and Pittsfield municipal politics. In fact the Journal has said that the mayoralty fight there this fall would not be between the candidates of two political parties, but between the candidates of rival electric roads.

The Journal was somewhat reassuring last night, however, for it said:

"The Berkshire Street Railway company is not taking any part in county politics and will not take any part in city politics." The speaker was President Gillett of the Berkshire Street Railway company. He was asked this morning the truth of persistent rumors regarding the attitude of the company toward senatorial candidates. Mr. Gillett authorized the statement above and further said that the company was not out for the nomination of either of the two republican candidates.

Mr. Gillett thinks that it is absurd to try to connect politics with the building of the railway. The company he represents has gone ahead and tried to win the good will of the people by building the railway where they believed it was wanted. The success of the company has given rise to many reports absolutely and entirely without foundation.

Classified Assessments Won

At the grand lodge meeting of the A. O. U. W. held in Boston yesterday the classified plan of assessments was adopted, the motion being carried by four votes. The delegates from this city were John Rice of Mountain lodge and John Barrington of North Adams lodge. They were both instructed to vote for level assessments.

MEANS $1400 A YEAR

Gained to the City by Good Work of the Assessors

The assessors have been convinced for some time that there was a quantity of untaxed railroad property in this city which was taxable under the law and have been looking the matter up. As a result they find $80,000 worth which the city has a right to tax. $60,000 worth being owned by the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad and $20,000 by the Pittsfield and North Adams railroad. The law, as the assessors find it, is that all property owned by railroads outside of a strip five rods wide, through the center of which their tracks are supposed to run, is taxable in the towns and cities where such property is located, and it is property of this class which is hereafter to be taxed here. In the case of the Boston & Maine it includes the freight house, a part of the depot and a considerable quantity of land. The tax on this property of the two roads in this city will amount to $1400 a year at the present rate of taxation. The facts were not established in time to assess the property when the regular assessments were made this year, but the law provides that omitted property may be assessed in December, and this will be done. When C. G. Barrlett, chairman of the board of assessors, went into office in 1896 the Fitchburg company was taxed on about $8000 worth of property and the Pittsfield and North Adams on about $5000 worth. It seems queer that such a large amount of taxable property should have been overlooked for so long a time, and the work of the assessors in discovering the oversight and rectifying it will be appreciated by the taxpayers of the city.

Total Number of Voters 3728

Since registration began this fall 49 names have been added to the voters' list and the total registration is now 3728, with five more sessions of the registrars to be held. There are 102 voters in the annexed part of Blackinton who will have to vote in Williamstown at state elections till the city is redistricted, although they vote here in municipal elections. This makes a good deal of bother for the registrars, as well as for voters themselves, but there is no help for it and all must endure the situation as patiently as possible. The redistricting will not come until after the state census in 1905.

Big String of Greys

Captain Frank Jones, Homer Soules, and Earl Soules returned yesterday from Arlington, Vt., where they had been for a few days hunting gray squirrels. The weather was unfavorable most of the time and they were able to hunt only a day and a half, but in that time they shot 50 squirrels, which they brought home. With their big string of game they attracted considerable attention on the cars and after arriving home. Captain Jones and Homer Soules have shot squirrels at Arlington every year for about 10 years. Both are great lovers of the sport, for which there is a good opportunity in that locality.

Not to Run Against Noxon

A. L. Green of Holyoke said yesterday that in all probability he will not be a candidate for the democratic nomination for district attorney, although he has received much encouragement from other places in the district. Springfield democrats have been especially urgent that he should run. Mr. Green says Holyoke democrats have also waited on him and communications have been received from the western part of the district. The councilor gives as his reason for declining to enter the filed, press of professional business.

Drury-Adams High Tomorrow

The football game between Drury and the Williamstown high school team scheduled for today has been postponed at the request of the Williamstown boys. Drury will play the Adams high school team at Adams tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Gadsby made an address to the pupils during senior rhetoricals today on a show of school interest in the success of the eleven. A large delegation will attend the game at Adams.

Invited to the Pig Killing

The meat inspection law is in full force. Two men were at the city hall this morning and afterward traveling about the city looking for Inspector Tower in order to secure his necessary presence at the killing of a pig. A little later it was learned that a Pownal, Vt., man who was ignorant of the law came into the city with 24 handsome and juicy quarters of lamb, which he was informed after arriving that he could not sell. In this way it is proposed to see that only pure meat is sold in this city.

Only a Great Joke

The democrats seem to have a great deal of trouble finding a candidate for sheriff. A day or two ago they boasted that they had discovered two willing ones, but Liveryman David J. Pratt of Dalton one of the mentioned candidates said yesterday that he considered the talk only a great joke.
